The SHORTEST OPERAS in Town

FREE!

Come and join us on our Opera Trail around the town. Meet us at the Corn Exchange for the start of the trail at 10.30 am and 2.30 pm. Each ten minute piece will be presented in the location for which it is written, and the audience will move on from site to site between the pieces.

Saturday shopping in Bury will never seem the same again after August 26th, when the Cornhill Walk Shopping Centre, Greene King Brewery, the Library, and the Manor House Museum will jump to the sound of opera.

What's more, this will be no standard work - horse of the operatic repertoire, but newly written mini - pieces, only ten minutes long specially commissioned from bright young composers and writers for each site, and performed by local singers who have been working on the pieces in a Summer School.
